Spectacular living awaits on Alpine's East Bench, where expansive Utah Valley and sunset views from spacious entertaining areas flow into breathtaking mountain vistas from the pool and spa.

This home delivers it all—an indoor basketball and pickleball court, a home theatre, a mirror-walled dance and workout space, plus a chipping and putting green. The pool's open-air casita and slide add to the fun, creating an elevated living experience for the whole family.

The main floor primary suite boasts its own private deck with a hot tub and more sunset views. Extra-high, deep, heated garage spaces offer plenty of room for daily drivers, weekend cruisers, and toys, all surrounding two large gathering spaces perfect for family and friends.
