

JUST LISTED

8747 Longwood St, San Diego, CA 92126

Welcome to this uniquely expanded corner-lot residence offering exceptional space and versatility. Tax records show 6 bedrooms and 5 bathrooms, though additional unpermitted alterations may create a different current layout. Buyer(s) should verify all permits, square footage, room count, and intended use. The home includes updated bathrooms, tile flooring, and various interior improvements, along with a low-maintenance yard featuring a mature guava tree and a functional garage for parking or storage. With its extensive layout, the property offers many possibilities and could potentially suit an assisted-living-style setup if allowed by local regulations. Buyer(s) must confirm zoning and approvals directly with the city. The home is being sold AS IS, presenting a rare opportunity for those seeking abundant space and a flexible floor plan.
