About Property

Pulling into this 4 bedroom, 2 bath corner lot house, you have incredible views of Black Mountain, which sits on San Xavier Indian Reservation. This charming house is looking for a loving new owner. The kitchen looks like it has been recently remodeled with upgraded cabinets and granite counter tops. The tile flooring appears to be brand new throughout the house. The back yard is completely fenced in with an alley that gives you access to the bigger gate in the back yard. This house is right down the street from the fire dept. Covered front and back patios.
